

What about Business and Jobs?

Can we improve this?

Local businesses are vital to stimulating growth and benefit the community way beyond just providing jobs.

They can revive neglected neighbourhoods, support schools or make a significant contribution to community facilities.

The Neighbourhood Plan will work to support local businesses, tell us how we can do this

Ensuring all members of a community are involved in driving development in their neighbourhood is central to our planning reforms and local businesses are an equally important part of many communities